

SaaS solutions built for higher education

Move daily processes to the cloud with Transact IDX™, an integrated, mobile-first cloud transaction system. By bringing together Payments, Campus ID, Commerce, and third-party software, Transact IDX streamlines your institution's daily operations and delivers a seamless experience across campus.

Why IDX?

1 Provide a modern, mobile-friendly experience

Students expect schools to meet them where they are—on their phones. Differentiate your institution with cloud-based tools that deliver the experience students want.

2 Work smarter, not harder

On-site software requires ongoing maintenance and manpower. Free up time and save vital resources with Transact IDX's helpful automations and intuitive user experience.

3 Keep data secure

Transitioning to a SaaS solution eliminates the need for repetitive security audits for on-premise servers or networks. Plus, Transact IDX meets strict cyber-security policies that keep students and staff safe.

4 Simplify daily operations

With Transact IDX, reduce the time and money spent on daily operations and on-premise servers and make custom integrations seamless.

Create a cashless on-campus experience

Student life is all about convenience.

With Transact IDX, students can use just one card or mobile credential to purchase a meal, do laundry, pay for printing, or buy snacks at the vending machine.

Plus, our mobile app and online platform helps students manage their accounts with ease.

Mobile Credential

Turn a smartphone into a student ID with a fast, secure NFC-enabled mobile credential for AppleWallet and Google Pay.

Hardware & Partner Integrations

Leverage existing investments and get up and running quickly with our robust hardware and partner application ecosystem.

Stored-Value Accounts

Assign students multiple accounts to be used with all types of credentials and point-of-sale (POS) systems for merchants, both on and off-campus.

Card Production integration

Integrate campus card production with your transaction and security solutions for a seamless and consolidated end-to-end experience.

Meal Plan Accounts

Provide a mix of plan types, flex accounts, and more. Integrate with POS systems and accommodate all types of dining locations.

Point-of-Sale Applications

Provide students convenient and quick access to account funds with a complete range of fully integrated POS applications, including real-time mobile ordering, self-service kiosks, and mobile registers.

Online Account Management

Allow students to view transactions and balances, add value, and manage their account through a school-branded, online account management portal.
